Workshops

Three, 1-hour workshops are offered daily.

ART

Students will explore drawing, painting, and sculpture techniques while they develop their skill and use their imagination. A variety of materials and media will be used to create two and three dimensional art.

DANCE

Students will build confidence, musicality, and self-expression through dance and movement. Warm-ups foster flexibility and coordination and familiarize students with the rudiments of various dance forms. Workshops explore the building blocks of dance-rhythm, space, energy, etc.

MUSIC

Students will be involved in various vocal and instrumental experiences to broaden their musical knowledge. Music workshops will enhance student's natural creative impulses and help develop concentration, coordination, and cooperation.

THEATRE

Theatre workshops are dedicated to providing supportive and fun-filled learning experiences that emphasizes individual expression and the creative choices that actors, directors, and other artists make in the process of building theatre.
